Letter No 891 of 2-5-1908 from the Sub-Division officer of Denkanikota, to the Dy Commissioner of Salem District.

With reference to your Camp Yadi No 2554 dated 25th January 1908 re the Cattle Show during the current year's Jatra at Hemagiri, Krishnarajapet Taluk which Continued from 6th to 10th February 1908, I have the honour to report that on the 7th February 1908, I proceeded to Hemagiri to see the arrangements made for the Cattle Show.

The site for tethering the Cattle had been selected in a Convenient locality between the hill and Bandhole near the river road and cross roads had been marked off at a great deal of Cost and labour and the whole place looked like a Chess board. Ultimately the ground was found insufficient, as the Collection of Cattle this year was much larger than was expected. About 9000 Cattle, 1200 Carts with bullocks and 12000 persons attended the fair. The right for Collection of the Cess on the Cattle attending the fair, had been Sold by public auction and the large Sum of Rs 850/- was realized as against 503/- in in the previous year. This was probably due to the healthy season and ambition on the cryots part to Compete for the much Coveted prizes Sanctioned by Government. It is hoped that the Grant of prizes and Certificate this year will make the future fairs more and more successful.

With the help of the members of the Committee the best Cattle were selected and prizes and Certificate were given to the owners of 10 heads as detailed below:-

Agricultural bullock. 1 1st. class 20-20
— Do — 1 2nd. class. 15-15.
— Do — 2. 3rd & 4th. 10 Rs each } — 20.
Breeding bull. 1. 1st. class. 15 — 15.
— Do — 1. 2nd. class. 10 — 10.
Bull Calves 4. 5 Rs each. — 20.

The descriptive Statement of the breed and other particulars of these prize winners, to whom and to what place they belonged is appended to the Amildars report.

It is not exaggeration to say that your absence on the occasion was very much felt both by us and the general public.

We would have been gratified by your personal appreciation of the satisfactory arrangements made for the fair and its successful result and the public more honoured and encouraged by your presence and advice. The success that attended the years show proves that this fair was a desideratum and is much appreciated by the public. Consequently I would strongly recommend the Continuance of the annual show at Nemagiri on a permanent basis. Arrangements will have to be made for leveling the ground as much as possible and to plant the whole area with fast growing trees for shelter. It would also be advisable to award Silver medals or bangles instead of Cash prizes so that they may be preserved long in the exhibitors family as heirloom.

Much credit is due to the Amildar and his subordinates for the trouble and interest taken by them to make the show a success in every way.
